

139490 - Butter with Sea Salt

Deliciously cultured, ridiculously creamy butter made from fresh cream. Our expert buttermakers carefully add live bacterial cultures to fresh cream. The cream ferments overnight; by morning, it's thickened and wonderful notes of buttermilk and hazelnuts have developed. The longer you culture — the better.

MARKETING

Making cultured butter is much like making wine, you want to ferment your cream like your grapes, slowly, to produce the best aromas. The longer you culture — the better.
