HANDLING SUGGESTIONS

Keep refrigerated. Once cut, wrap unused cheese tightly in plastic. If mold grows on the cheese, it can easily be removed by lightly scraping the affected area.-----

PREPARATION & COOKING SUGGESTIONS

Bring to room temperature before serving.

SERVING SUGGESTIONS

We recommend Parmigiano Reggiano on dishes light in flavor so that its unique and delicate flavor can shine. There are multitudes of cooking applications like pasta, pizza, and salads, and the rind can be dropped into soups to thicken the broth and add depth of flavor. Pesto is a classic application combined with Pecorino Romano. It can also be enjoyed as a table cheese, drizzled with Saba.
