

3116 - Varzi Salami

This ancient recipe hails from the village of Varzi located along Via Del Sale, "The Salt Road," between the sea and the mountains. This mild Italian salami has a thick-grind and boasts subtle flavors of nutmeg and clove. Our Varzi pairs well with soft-ripened cheeses and light, fruity wines. It is a great addition to charcuterie boards or to enjoy as a snack.

MARKETING

Varzi salami is not as well known in the US but makes a great addition to any charcuterie board. It's traditionally seasoned with nutmeg and clove.
